Joint Meeting of City Officials held to discuss Grand Junction

Westfield, IN – Westfield City Council President Ken Kingshill announced that a joint meeting of the City Council and the Advisory Plan Commission will be held to discuss the Grand Junction Task Group's proposed plans. The meeting will be held on Monday, February 23 at 7:00 p.m. at Westfield City Hall Assembly Room.

At the meeting, Hitchcock Design Group will present the proposed Grand Junction Master Plan to both bodies. "Presenting to both the City Council and the Plan Commission will help foster communication between both boards," says Kingshill. "Better communication and understanding between these boards will ultimately result in efficient movement through the planning process."

There will be no action taken at this meeting. It will consist of the presentation and discussion to follow. Public Participation is highly encouraged.
