The Westfield Police Department is participating in No-Shave November this year! We want to make the public aware: if you see an officer with facial hair or looking a little scruffy, remember, it's for charity! For the month of November, our officers will be able to grow a beard and still come to work every day for this great cause! They will be returning to our normal grooming policies on December 1, 2018.

No-Shave November is a movement devoted to growing cancer awareness and raising funds to support cancer prevention, research, and education. No-Shave November is a month-long journey during which participants forgo shaving in order to evoke conversation and raise cancer awareness. To participate, employees who donate a minimum of $30 to the fund will be allowed to grow facial hair during the month of November. Such grooming standards are strictly regulated by department policy but will be somewhat relaxed in support of the program. Female employees can wear a pin or ribbon on their uniforms to show support. Between officer and public donations, it is the department's goal to raise $2500. All proceeds will go to the American Cancer Society, via the city of Westfield's Relay for Life team, Shamrockin' for a Cure.

We hope everyone takes the opportunity to engage our officers in conversation about this cause and spread awareness. Check our Facebook page to see occasional pictures and follow our journey. As always, we are encouraging the public to help fight cancer with us. Grow a beard and donate funds to help fight cancer!
